Gateway Council Hears Reports Of District

In regular monthly session Gateway Council P.T.A. met Monday morning at San Pedro High school, with Mrs. V. E. Hopkins president, presiding. Reports were heard from consumer, information, child welfare and art chairmen, and Mrs. J. J. Millard gave details of the district board meeting. Mrs. Maryellen Lombardi, girls' vice principal, gave a short welcoming talk. Local presidents gave a resume of their associations activities.

The proposed state care of spastic children was reported on by Mrs. Victor Christensen. Three are to be sent to centers, one at Berkeley and the other at Los Angeles, and a large appropriation has been made to further this work. Some children will receive institution care and others will be kept among their families. They need the same care and security as normal children and then can take their places in society.

The council programs were distributed by Mrs. J. S. Dresser who also introduced the chairmen. Mrs. Levi Stump showed new materials and demonstrated tests for genuine labelling. The membership of the council has increased. Tenth District has paid out the sum of $2,534.04 for lunches and milk for one calendar month. This does not include welfare assumed by local associations. There have been seven new associations formed within the district. The Thanksgiving table decorations were the work of Mrs. R. L. Thomas.

Those attending were: Mrs. V. E. Hopkins, Gateway Council president, Mrs. J. J. Millard and Mrs. Herbert Johnson of the district board, and Mesdames William Hall, Hazel Stanton, San Pedro, F. K. Kleingart, R. L. Roberts, George Tumble, L. C. Stephensen, Dana Junior, A. C. Turner, Torrance, Alpha Stump, J. S. Dresser, J. J. Millard, Narbonne, E. J. Cox, L. J. Bierlein, Robert H. Parks, Gardena, M. E. Harp, E. J. Rowan, Victor Christensen, Eugene B. Morey, J. J. Sanders, Banning high school P.T.A.

At the conclusion of the meeting the group enjoyed a social hour and later were served luncheon by the Caterettes. Principal Whedon was in attendance.

Los Angeles Club Luncheon Guest Of Mrs. Brooks

The home of Mrs. Willis M. Brooks was a setting for an enjoyable Halloween buffet luncheon Tuesday afternoon of last week when 65 members of the philanthropy section of the Cosmos Club were entertained. Yellow chrysanthemums, arranged in a hubbard squash bowl, orange tapers and colorful perimons completed the buffet table decoration.

Mrs. O. A. Kresse, of this city, and Meses. Vern Wilkinson, Harvey Hummel and Max Thompson of Wilmington, assisted Mrs. Brooks.

A showing of the hostess' teapot collection preceded an afternoon of card play.
